

THE ETHICS OF TEACHING

The ethics of teaching do not require complex analysis, just profound commitment. For they are simply ...

Work hard

Listen well

Teach the student wisely

Educate with compassion

Respect the student

Understand your discipline

Understand your power

Do not exceed your limits

Exceed your students' expectations

Recognize the partnership between student, teacher, family, and society

Recognize the need for hope

There is little else

